

NW's Eklipsse

NW's Eklipsse has been my partner for many miles. He's probably best known for his tail - or lack of tail! His mood is always evident - tail up means he is happy. Endurance seems to just be the sport for him. While willing to walk, he's happiest when trotting or cantering down the trail. I hope to spend many more miles on the trail with him.

Dawn Haas