Rock River Charity Ride,

August 22nd/23rd, was truly a testimony to our motto of “Persevere”. The ride was chosen to be an FEI training session on August 20th/21st, and ride management was informed on the 17th that the original site would not be available due to rain and wet trails. Most people would have just thrown in the towel in spite of the riders coming in from Florida, Virginia, Missouri, and Canada et al. Not Tony Troyer! He buckled down, found a new location, informed everyone of the changes, and pretty much accomplished six months of preparation in 72 hours. The FEI riders had their training session and the races went on. Kudus to Tony, Carol and all of those who scrambled to pull it off successfully.

I can’t remember the last time I attended a ride and was so impressed with the things that were going on. Sure, all the Central Time Zone hopefuls were in attendance, and I was happy to see our very own UMECRA family perform so well, but I’ve been around for a lot of years and I’ve seen a lot of things, and it isn’t the big rigs and the fast horses that make me proud of being a member of this sport. Far from it. It is, and always will be, the “little” things. If rides existed for only the FEI hopefuls, we wouldn’t have very many rides; if only “world class” horses attended our rides, we wouldn’t have very many entries.

Thank goodness that isn’t the case, nor is it the backbone of our sport. The following are examples of our strengths.

Let’s start with one of the “little” things. Entered in the 30 mile comp on Saturday was a third generation rider. She was mounted on a pony that looked very familiar to me. When I asked who she was riding, I was told “Heather.” Now that may not mean much to many of you, but for those of us who have been around 20+ years, “Heather” is more affectionately known as “Heather The Creep”, and she may just be the best cow pony (and at her diminutive size, I emphasize the word “pony”) that Jan and Grace ever owned. My “kids” used to fight over who got ride her when we visited JG ranch. I remember one time when Heather got stuck on a log. She jumped it to get to an errant cow, but the log was too high and she swayed back and forth until she could get a set of hooves on the ground. Nick Worthington, (son of Guy and grandson of Jan) decorated member of our armed forces, near thirty years of age now, did a season or two on Heather The Creep. And there she was, near thirty years old herself, carrying a new generation of kids.

We go from there to one of the “big” things. Challenger! Big raw-boned horse with a big attitude and a big heart! He carried Mike Mocilan to glory many a time. With an AERC record of 4,500 miles he has carried several other riders besides Mike. To his credit, Challenger has a Tevis completion, a couple of Race of Champion completions, and Top Ten placings in several AERC National rides. At Rock River, he carried a novice rider on his first ride. Challenger is also in his late twenties, and looks better than ever.

Also in attendance at the ride was a horse/rider team who had just returned from the Tevis. They had pulled at mile 68, not because of veterinary mandate, but because the rider felt her horse “just wasn’t right.” And she ought to have known! She had bred, trained, and competed on this horse, as well as several generations of his ancestors. So instead of heading off into 17 more miles of Sierra Nevada wilderness, she voluntarily pulled – pretty hard to do when one spends 35 years trying to get to Tevis. Her reward? A strong, healthy, sound mount who raced in to the finish at Rock River, and will return to race many more times.

I studied most of the entries, those I knew well from years of riding with and against them, and realized that so few of these horses were perfect. I knew their stories, and I knew of the obstacles their owners had overcome in order to be able to keep them competing. I knew of the mysteries of selenium deficiencies, interferences, tie ups, and vague lameness. I knew that these riders spent time, money, and sleepless nights in frustration in order to make their partners sound. I knew that a world-class hopeful would have been sent packing if he had so flummoxed his rider. I personally was riding such a horse, and at Rock River he completed his 4,000th UMECRA mile. Over 3,000 of those miles had been accrued after an accident that left him with a broken cannon bone and advice from the University of Illinois to “put him down”. Miracles do happen, but even if they don’t, this horse represents the multitude of retired racers living out their lives in comfort on loving owner’s farms.

As I looked around at the variety of horses entered, I thought about the many levels of this sport. Not all were born to be distance horses, and I even heard one of the out-of-area riders make a remark as to the judgment of the riders who competed on these horses. I didn’t say anything (can you believe that??), because I gave that person the benefit of her ignorance. She didn’t know how many miles that Paso had done over the years, or how many times that Morgan or mule made their riders proud beyond words. She didn’t realize that Paint/Quarter Horse meant more to her rider than all the Arabs in a Sheik’s stable. She didn’t realize that most of us are in this sport because we enjoy the time spent with our good friends, human and equine, and don’t really care that much about the ribbons or glory.

Lastly, I realized the greatest strength of our sport on the grass roots level is the ride manager. There are lots of us, but few as good a friend as Tony Troyer. Big ol’, red-bearded Tony almost lost his hair, and I’m sure a pound of two, over the frustration of the week. What a job he did, pulling off this ride site relocation, figuring out a new trail, and squeezing giant rigs into a park designed mostly for day riders. But at awards, he gave all the gratitude to others, those who had pitched in at the last minute to make the ride a success. This lumberjack of a man had tears in his voice when he thanked his friends, and especially his “better half”, long time partner Carol Dilbeck.

So once again I say, it’s not the big rigs and fast horses that are the backbone of this sport. It is the big hearts and steadfast friendships.

Loki, Chariots and Bonnie’s Tevis Adventure (Part 1) – by

Bonnie Mielke

At 6:00as Tuesday, July 21st, my sister Mary and I loaded Chariots, Loki and Taz, kissed Bob goodbye and headed west. We spent 4 days to get to Reno, our layover spot. Each night the horses had a pen to run around in and each morning we were on the road by 6am.

We had been given the name of our hosts, Bob and Dovie Pickering, from Chip Jack. They were super hosts, letting us ‘do our thing’ but being there for advice and company when needed. We went for a ride on the BLM land, ½ block away every and rode 2 – 8 miles.

One of the highlights of the time in Reno was visiting the Mustangs. Bob, our host, is a bike rider. On one of his excursions, he found an area where Mustangs hang out. It was on the south side of Reno, where there is a waterway and it’s lush with tall grass and a creek. There were about 40 mustangs in the area, but Bob’s little herd (stallion, 4 mares and 2 foals) seemed to be the only breeding herd. What a neat experience!

On Wednesday, we went to try and find Robie Park and the vet checks before I had to do it with the horses. After lunch, we went to Auburn to find the stalls. We were at the Red Barn checkout out where the stalls were when I heard “BONNIE MIELKE!!”. Jim Baldwin, who many of you may remember from his trips to UMECRA and from riding in the Central region had just arrived and gave me a huge hug – welcome to Tevis!!!

Note: For current point standings, go to www.UMECRA.com

Ride Managers: Please double check ride placings before you send it in to be compiled for high points.

Riders: Check the UMECRA website frequently for placings. If you observe any discrepancies, contact the appropriate ride manager to correct the placing. Do NOT contact the points keeper (Angie Mikkelson) to correct the placings as she has to go back to the ride manager to confirm the correction anyway. If you use email – you can always send any questions to both the points keeper and the ride manager.
