

UPPER MIDWEST ENDURANCE AND COMPETITIVE RIDES ASSOCIATION

November News

The board is hearing that the members still have questions about the Board of Directors Code of Conduct which was adopted in January. This document, signed by every board member and the 4 board appointees lays out an agreement that the board members act as role models, as mentors, and ambassador's to the sport of distance riding. We are to be ethical and business-like. Our board members are held to a higher standard of behavior.

Most notable in the code is to communicate with our members, seek their opinions, and make informed decisions. We are to represent their ideas and concerns. We are to be knowledgeable about state and national issues. We are to treat other board members with respect, courtesy and integrity.

We are to maintain confidentiality but do our work openly. As stated in the September newsletter, "Member confidentiality is important for many reasons both ethically and legally. An underlying element of the board's need for confidentiality is that it helps to build and develop trust. It can allow for the free flow of information between members and the board and it acknowledges that a member's personal life and personal information belong to them. Only pertinent information in regards to the affairs of UMECRA need to be discussed in the interest of making informed and ethical decisions." Yes, some Board discussions and decisions must be handled close to the vest. For example working out a confrontation between two parties or a financial issue with a member, On all items the board needs and wants your insights, comments, questions and concerns in order to share them and help make informed decisions. The board considers this input, but we still make decisions based on many factors including but not limited to the general welfare of the organization and horse welfare.

Please contact on of the board's executive members if you have further questions about this: Theresa Meyer 763-753-5236 thmeyer753@gmail.com, Tony Troyer 815-530-4464 il4aerc@aol.com, or Jill Feller 920-948-9502 jfeller@nconnect.com
