UPPER MIDWEST ENDURANCE AND COMPETITIVE RIDES ASSOCIATION

LETTER FROM THE PREZ...

Why do we ride and compete in distance riding events? There are probably as many reasons as there are riders, but I'm going to share mine.

First, I love riding horses and exploring different trails. But that's just scratching the surface.

One of the best things about this sport is the friendships I've made. Over the years, I've had the pleasure of riding with so many people! From long-time UMECRA members like Roberta Harms, to newer members like Jessica Sonneck and so many more. The opportunity to share stories while trotting down the trail is so special!

The other thing I love about this sport is the way the riders support each other – from hanging near the pulse lane to help make sure a competitor's horse doesn't spike their pulse because their friend left; to loaning a new rider a helmet when they didn't know they should have one. Are people competitive? You bet they are, but they also aren't typically cut-throat.

Every person I've had the opportunity to ride with has taught me something new – it may or may not be horse related, but they all had something worthwhile to share. So much fun!

A fun thing I got a chance to experience at a ride recently was a Kindness award. The ride manager distributed cards to submit nominations. There were so many cards turned in for small acts of kindness between participants. It was fun to hear about each act of kindness during awards; from someone jogging out a horse in the vet check for a rider who couldn't run, to going out from a hold a few minutes late so your ride group can stay together for the next loop, to getting another rider a pair of sunglasses after theirs were lost. These are the things that make this sport memorable.

Now as I look back at about 20 years actively involved in this sport, I have so many good memories of rides with friends (old and new) whether we shared the joy of a successful ride or they offered a shoulder to cry on after a disappointing one. I appreciate them all.

Let's all think about why we ride and what's important – let's celebrate the joy of riding!

Peggy Pasillas, UMECRA President

SOUTHEAST MN RIDE - OUR APPRECIATION

First, a huge thank you to all the riders who came to Southeast Minnesota ride this year. You endured perfect riding weather, terrific trails, wonderful water crossings and a pretty good time!

Thank you to our invaluable ride veterinarians: Dr. Taryn and Dr. Chandra. They do an absolutely awesome job. Appreciation goes to Timer Bob Egerer who comes back every year to keep track of the riders. We are grateful to the folks in the Peerless P&R Zone: Holly Egerer, John Winterfeldt, Ken Meyer and Sharon Wormley. Our Sublime Scribes: Carmen Steuck, Diane Merz, Julia, Jane and Bridger. Our Cheerful Camp Kitchen Assistant Jan Sasena. And applause for Jodi Johannessen who prepared our Friday night vet and volunteer meal and was Supreme Novice Ride leader for Sunday's event. Also thanks to Kasie Thomas, Karrie Halbur, and Tracy Haelterman who helped raise the ride office tent on Friday. Victoria and I recognize that our spouses, Rick and Ken, help us out immensely the 11 months we plan this distance ride. We couldn't do it without them.

If I missed naming anyone - thank you for your help. Please let us know, and what you did.

We hope to see you on the trails the rest of the year. Southeast Minnesota occurs on Father's Day weekend every year. Camping reservations open up 120 days before the ride at <https://reservemn.usedirect.com/MinnesotaWeb/>
